Adventure is the Key

- To improve teamwork
- To develop team building skills
- Great way to start a new team or revitalize an existing one

The awe-inspiring outdoor setting of Northeast New Mexico is the perfect place to launch your group on its journey to new possibilities.

Low Challenge Course

The low challenge course has 13 low to the ground elements, that are ACCT (Association for Challenge Course Technology) certified. They provide an opportunity for groups to experience teambuilding through problem solving and learning to work together. Groups range in size from 8 to 24. The course is for all ages.

High Challenge Course

The high elements strengthen an individual's self-confidence and problem-solving skills. Participants can push the limits and face their fears in a safe environment with exhilarating high ropes course activities.

Our high ropes elements are being refurbished and we plan to have them available summer of 2019.
